Tarpaulin-covered airplanes, minus their wings, are loaded at Floyd Bennett Airport, N. Y., for shipment to Staten Island, where they are transferred to ships for Europe. Repeal of the arms embargo released these planes and hundreds of others to the Allies.

After the "feed," motion pictures of the enamel industry were shown by Joseph Irwin of the Ferro Enamel Corp., of Cleveland.

J. W. Pettyjohn, Jr., is instructor of the enameling group of the Trades Class.

END OF THE CAMPAIGN

The 1939 political campaign has shot its bolt. Voters' decisions on Tuesday will show what effect the shooting had.

Chief characteristic of the campaign in Ohio this year was intensity of interest in the two Bigelow amendments. The drive to arouse voters to the necessity of voting against both proposals is expected to result in unusually heavy voting throughout the state. As in California, threatened with chaos by the ham-and-eggs pension scheme, the Bigelow pension plan calls for widespread voting to offset a compact minority resolved to force its adoption at any cost. The second Bigelow proposal, which would make a joke of the initiative and referendum principle in Ohio by reducing requirements for petitioners, also must be blocked by an aroused electorate.

Naturally, many other states will be watching the outcome of Ohio's voting with close interest. While they expect the Bigelow proposals to be defeated, much depends on the margin of defeat. The experience of California, where a ham-and-eggs proposal was licked in 1938 by a small majority, makes other states hopeful that both California and Ohio this year may cook the pension grab goose convincingly enough to spare them the trouble in future elections. Common sense has been put on trial. Robbing Peter to pay Paul is not the solution for the problem of age in Ohio, in California, or anywhere else in the United States.

On the two other statewide questions, the proposal for a state board of education and the referendum on the civil service reorganization bill passed by the legislature in its latest session, the judgment of voters should be affirmative. Opponents in neither case have offered arguments worth considering.

BUTTON, BUTTON—

It's hard to know where the City of Flint's going to be when these lines finally roll off the presses and get into circulation. Aside from the fact City of Flint's the catch phrase of the only unusual story sparked by the war so far, perhaps it doesn't matter.

The important thing is that Germany got rid of the ship. Nazi officials deny this was intentional, but the City of Flint had turned out to be too hot to handle. Its successful return to Germany was something Great Britain couldn't afford to let happen, because it would have advertised that something was wrong with its blockade in the North sea.

What Norway's part in upsetting the plan actually was is one of those little question marks that punctuate the history of wars while they're being fought. It seems not unlikely that in the game of "Button, Button, Who's Got the Button," Germany found itself holding a hot one and was tickled pink at a chance to get rid of it by letting Norway give it back to its American crew.

Being still too hot to handle, the City of Flint no doubt will be in rapid circulation for several more days—till it cools off.

NOVEMBER'S BAD PRESS

As they say about shows and politicians that don't get good notices, November has a bad press. Of all the months of the year, none has been panned more energetically by scribes.

Thomas Hood, the poet, once pulled out all stops and wrote of November that it had "No sun—no moon—no main—no noon—no dawn—no dusk—no proper time of day—no warmth—no cheerfulness—no healthful ease—no road, no street, no other side the way, no comfortable feeling in any member—no shade, no shine, no butterflies, no bees, no fruits, no flowers, no leaves, no birds."

Streets and roads have been fixed, but otherwise the indictment stands as written and is published as an accurate description of the general state of affairs from October to December.

In fact, the one decent thing about November as a stretch of wear is the faint possibility it may pull a surprise and produce a flash of Indian summer, as though to make its own sorry nature seem worse by comparison. The old Anglo-Saxon names for November were Windmonath (wind month) and Bloodmonath (blood month) and that seems to cover the situation adequately.

THE WELL-KNOWN SQUEEZE

Not many Americans have seen Finland, and it's beginning to look as though not many of them ever will see it. Everything indicates Finland is the victim of the well-known squeeze.

The squeeze goes by formula. A dictator decides to gobble up a weak nation. His propaganda ministry begins to explain why this must be done. The weak nation threatens the big nation's security. Agents are dispatched to stir up trouble in the weak nation so the strong one later can charge it's unable to control its own affairs and must be invaded to restore order. Diplomats present demands, and when the demands are rejected they present stronger demands. The army is mobilized. Everybody gets tremendously excited and one day right before lunch the big nation gobbles up the weak one, with or without the aid of high explosives, as desired.

Germany perfected the squeeze. But if Russia isn't using it on Finland then Strangler Lewis didn't know anything about applying headlocks.

ENTERPRISE

Crime does not pay. Never forget it. A prisoner named Dreddy in Texas state penitentiary showed considerable enterprise by turning out counterfeit half dollars—in durance vile.

He traded the half dollars for commodities at the prison commissary. It was a mystery where they were coming from, but the warden and an alert detective finally tracked down the source.

Enterprise can't be stifled in America. It bobs up in the most unexpected places. For the prisoner of the year, to go along with Chaledon, the horse of the year, we nominate Dreddy.

THE STARS SAY:

For Tuesday, November 7

The sudden precipitation of what may prove to be a "golden opportunity," an open sesame to the long-dreamed-of land of heart's desire, is the augury based on this day's lunar and mutual aspects. There are signs of quite unforeseen and unpredictable events, which will occur with really devastating force. The outcome will be happy and profitable if clear judgment is observed and there is a justified outlay of funds. Extravagance and rash moves, as well as some underlying deceptions, might interfere with unusual openings for progress, adventure and romance. But radical change in either the physical outlook or the mental outlook is assured on this day.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of sudden and quite unexpected events which will have a direct bearing on the future and its fortunes. It is advised that due consideration be given alluring prospects, as there may be lurking dangers or debatable intrigues. Lavishness in outlay of money might be a defeating factor to this grand surprise.

A child born on this day may have unusual talents, with originality and independence of thought and action. It may be adventurous and romantic, with intellectual leanings to the occult, metaphysical or scientific experimentation.

CONVOYS FOR BOMBERS

LONDON, Nov. 6.—British military experts predicted today that large-scale, long-range bombing attacks in this war would await development of "distance" fighting convoys.

These sources contended that Germany's few "exploratory" raids on Britain's naval anchorages had proved that bombers not in convoys were too vulnerable to fast attack planes for profitable mass bombing forays.

The average modern fighting plane—that of any nation—it was said, might have a range of 650 miles without refueling. It is about 300 miles from the British Isles to Germany. This is too far, it was said, for a safe margin for maneuvering of in-aiding fighting planes.

The Germans have raided the Firth of Forth and Scapa Flow while the British have attacked the German naval base at Kiel. Generally the bombers were unescorted. From available accounts—British and German—one expert said it appeared that about one-third of the bombers were lost.

"This average," said the tactician, "was too high for really profitable operations when you consider the importance of machinery in such a war as this and the difficulties of replacement."

Several Medical Problems Discussed By Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

SIMULTANEOUS—

IMMUNIZATION

Not only possible, but very advantageous. The report of a public health officer says that he gave, in 1939, in a group of rural counties, 60,000 doses of vaccine. Experience proved that a person could be immunized against diphtheria, typhoid fever and smallpox at the same time without more reaction than one gets from vaccines given for only one disease.

Many schools have been inoculated 100 per cent with three simultaneous vaccinations. Many pupils were tested two years later with the Schick test for diphtheria and found to be immune.

The advantages are that parents will bring children for three inoculations and then fail to show up for any others. Children develop a fixed dislike to being inoculated after three doses. Who blames them.

During five years of experience according to this report, there were no fatalities, and no one was made seriously ill.

EYE TROUBLES AND BODY DISORDERS

What conditions and symptoms are caused by eye strain?

A long list of functional disorders are attributed to eye strain—nervousness, mental dullness, laziness, headaches, nausea, indigestion, and chronic dyspepsia. Parents and teachers must think of this source of functional troubles and institute complete routine examinations of the eye in backward and listless children.

It also works the other way around; many bodily disorders that are obscure and uncomplaining may cause eye trouble. A prominent Chicago oculist says that a majority of those he examined were actually in need of other medical attention. His statement is based upon practical experience of many years, during which he examined and treated thousands of eye cases. A good oculist probably turns down more applicants than those he prescribes glasses for.

ACTIONS OF SAUERKRAUT JUICE

Has there ever been any study made of the action of sauerkraut juice, or is what we hear about it based just on opinion and guess work?

Dr. Gehlen of Erlangen made a careful laboratory study of sauerkraut juice and found it to have quite complicated pharmacologic properties.

Sauerkraut as a laxative depends mostly on its bulk. It is one of the best cathartics because it contains so much roughage. But the juice itself is also laxative, probably largely on account of its lactic acid content.

Taking sauerkraut juice as a fresh product, it contains yeast and lactic acid bacilli. When pasteurized and filtered, it is clear with five per cent solid content and one and one-half per cent ash.

Ten to 20 cc. of this regularly produced catharsis in cats and humans. Strips of intestinal muscle responded with rhythmic peristaltic action to application of neutralized juice. It can be proved pharmacologically that it has an action on the automatic nervous system.

Sauerkraut juice is a good source of vitamin C and vitamin B.

It also has an effect on the heart producing slowing and increased output.

Questions and Answers

Reader: "Does a cavity in a lung ever heal just with rest and no other treatment, such as pneumothorax?"

Answer: "Small cavities sometimes do; but seldom."

J. D. G.: "Would acidophilus milk help ulcer of the stomach?"

Answer: "The rule is not to eat anything beginning with the letter S—Sweet, Sour and Spice—if you have ulcer of the stomach. Acidophilus milk comes under the second category. It has no healing properties for the ulcer and whole milk is preferable."

END OF THE CAMPAIGN

The 1939 political campaign has shot its bolt. Voters' decisions on Tuesday will show what effect the shooting had.

Chief characteristic of the campaign in Ohio this year was intensity of interest in the two Bigelow amendments. The drive to arouse voters to the necessity of voting against both proposals is expected to result in unusually heavy voting throughout the state. As in California, threatened with chaos by the ham-and-eggs pension scheme, the Bigelow pension plan calls for widespread voting to offset a compact minority resolved to force its adoption at any cost. The second Bigelow proposal, which would make a joke of the initiative and referendum principle in Ohio by reducing requirements for petitioners, also must be blocked by an aroused electorate.

Naturally, many other states will be watching the outcome of Ohio's voting with close interest. While they expect the Bigelow proposals to be defeated, much depends on the margin of defeat. The experience of California, where a ham-and-eggs proposal was licked in 1938 by a small majority, makes other states hopeful that both California and Ohio this year may cook the pension grab goose convincingly enough to spare them the trouble in future elections. Common sense has been put on trial. Robbing Peter to pay Paul is not the solution for the problem of age in Ohio, in California, or anywhere else in the United States.

On the two other statewide questions, the proposal for a state board of education and the referendum on the civil service reorganization bill passed by the legislature in its latest session, the judgment of voters should be affirmative. Opponents in neither case have offered arguments worth considering.

BUTTON, BUTTON—

It's hard to know where the City of Flint's going to be when these lines finally roll off the presses and get into circulation. Aside from the fact City of Flint's the ratch phase of the only unusual story sparked by the war so far, perhaps it doesn't matter.

The important thing is that Germany got rid of the ship. Nazi officials deny this was intentional, but the City of Flint had turned out to be too hot to handle. Its successful return to Germany was something Great Britain couldn't afford to let happen, because it would have advertised that something was wrong with its blockade in the North sea.

What Norway's part in upsetting the plan actually was is one of those little question marks that punctuate the history of wars while they're being fought. It seems not unlikely that in the game of "Button, Button, Who's Got the Button," Germany found itself holding a hot one and was tickled pink at a chance to get rid of it by letting Norway give it back to its American crew.

Being still too hot to handle, the City of Flint no doubt will be in rapid circulation for several more days—till it cools off.

NOVEMBER'S BAD PRESS

As they say about shows and politicians that don't get good notices, November has a bad press. Of all the months of the year, none has been panned more energetically by scribes.

Thomas Hood, the poet, once pulled out all stops and wrote of November that it had "No sun—no moon—no morn—no noon—no dawn—no dusk—no proper time of day—no warmth—no cheerfulness—no healthful ease—no road, no street, no 'other side the way, no comfortable feeling in any member—no shade, no shine, no butterflies, no bees, no fruits, no flowers, no leaves, no birds."

Streets and roads have been fixed, but otherwise the indictment stands as written and is published as an accurate description of the general state of affairs from October to December.

In fact, the one decent thing about November as a stretch of wear is the faint possibility it may pull a surprise and produce a flash of Indian summer, as though to make its own sully nature seem worse by comparison. The old Anglo-Saxon names for November were Windmonath (wind month) and Bloodmonath (blood month) and that seems to cover the situation adequately.

THE WELL-KNOWN SQUEEZE

Not many Americans have seen Finland, and it's beginning to look as though not many of them ever will see it. Everything indicates Finland is the victim of the well-known squeeze.

The squeeze goes by formula. A dictator decides to gobble up a weak nation. His propaganda ministry begins to explain why this must be done: The weak nation threatens the big nation's security. Agents are dispatched to stir up trouble in the weak nation so the strong one later can charge it's unable to control its own affairs and must be invaded to restore order. Diplomats present demands, and when the demands are rejected they present stronger demands. The army is mobilized. Everybody gets tremendously excited and one day right before lunch the big nation gobbles up the weak one, with or without the aid of high explosives, as desired.

Germany perfected the squeeze, but if Russia isn't using it on Finland then Strangler Lewis didn't know anything about applying headlocks.

ENTERPRISE

Crime does not pay. Never forget it. A prisoner named Dreddy in Texas state penitentiary showed considerable enterprise by turning out counterfeit half dollars—in durance vile.

He traded the half dollars for commodities at the prison commissary. It was a mystery where they were coming from, but the warden and an alert detective finally tracked down the source.

Enterprise can't be stifled in America. It bobs up in the most unexpected places. For the prisoner of the year, to go along with Chaledon, the horse of the year, we nominate Dreddy.

THE STARS SAY:

For Tuesday, November 7

The sudden precipitation of what may prove to be a "golden opportunity," an open sesame to the long-dreamed-of land of heart's desire, is the augury based on this day's lunar and mutual aspects. There are signs of quite unforeseen and unpredictable events, which will occur with really devastating force. The outcome will be happy and profitable if clear judgment is observed and there is a justified outlay of funds. Extravagance and rash moves, as well as some underlying deceptions, might interfere with unusual openings for progress, adventure and romance. But radical change in either the physical outlook or the mental outlook is assured on this day.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of sudden and quite unexpected events which will have a direct bearing on the future and its fortunes. It is advised that due consideration be given alluring prospects, as there may be lurking dangers or debatable intrigues. Lavishness in outlay of money might be a defeating factor to this grand surprise.

A child born on this day may have unusual talents, with originality and independence of thought and action. It may be adventurous and romantic, with intellectual leanings to the occult, metaphysical or scientific experimentation.

CONVOYS FOR BOMBERS

LONDON, Nov. 6.—British military experts predicted today that large-scale, long-range bombing attacks in this war would await development of "distance" fighting convoys.

These sources contended that Germany's few "exploratory" raids on Britain's naval anchorages had proved that bombers not in convoys were too vulnerable to fast attack planes for profitable mass bombing forays.

The average modern fighting plane—that of any nation—it was said, might have a range of 650 miles without refueling. It is about 300 miles from the British Isles to Germany. This is too far, it was said, for a safe margin for maneuvering of invading fighting planes.

The Germans have raided the Firth of Forth and Scapa Flow while the British have attacked the German naval base at Kiel. Generally the bombers were unescorted. From available accounts—British and German—one expert said it appeared that about one-third of the bombers were lost.

"This average," said the tactician, "was too high for really profitable operations when you consider the importance of machinery in such a war as this and the difficulties of replacement."

Several Medical Problems Discussed By Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D. SIMULTANEOUS—IMMUNIZATION

In reading your discussion of the inoculations to produce immunity in school children, the question occurs to me whether it would not be possible to give all the immunizations at one dose.

Not only possible, but very advantageous. The report of a public health officer says that he gave, in 1939, in a group of rural counties, 60,000 doses of vaccine. Experience proved that a person could be immunized against diphtheria, typhoid fever and smallpox at the same time without more reaction than one gets from vaccines given for only one disease.

Many schools have been inoculated 100 per cent with three simultaneous vaccinations. Many pupils were tested two years later with the Schick test for diphtheria and found to be immune.

The advantages are that parents will bring children for three inoculations and then fall to show up for any others. Children develop a fixed dislike to being inoculated after three doses. Who blames them.

During five years of experience according to this report, there were no fatalities, and no one was made seriously ill.

ing which he examined and treated thousands of eye cases. A good oculist probably turns down more applicants than those he prescribes glasses for.

ACTIONS OF SAUERKRAUT JUICE

Has there ever been any study made of the action of sauerkraut juice, or is what we hear about it based just on opinion and guess work?

Dr. Gehlen of Erlangen made a careful laboratory study of sauerkraut juice and found it to have quite complicated pharmacologic properties.

Sauerkraut as a laxative depends mostly on its bulk. It is one of the best cathartics because it contains so much roughage. But the juice itself is also laxative, probably largely on account of its lactic acid content.

Taking sauerkraut juice as a fresh product, it contains yeast and lactic acid bacilli. When pasteurized and filtered, it is clear with five per cent solid content and one and one-half per cent ash.

Ten to 20 cc. of this regularly produced catharsis in cats and humans. Strips of intestinal muscle responded with rhythmic peristaltic action to application of neutralized juice. It can be proved pharmacologically that it has an action on the automatic nervous system.

Sauerkraut juice is a good source of vitamin C and vitamin B. It also has an effect on the heart producing slowing and increased output.

"KNIGHT ERRANT"

by Jack McDonald

SYNOPSIS

It was past time for the Santa Anita Handicap, "Coronado," the favorite, with fourteen straight wins, pranced on the track to the applause of the crowd. Dan, his owner, a sportsman of high caliber, hung on the rail, watching. Just a few hours ago, when he had collapsed in the tack room, Dan's reputation, had taken Coronado to the receiving barn. "Coronado" was a 10-year-old, Heather, Dan's daughter, Heather, was a girl of 16, and she was the unserved section in back of Heather's stall. "Slim" Maynard and his pal, "Snapper" Elliott, "Slim" born Andrew Branson Maynard, knew horses from the start. His father had a string of thoroughbreds when Slim was a boy, but a flood ruined the Maynard stables and Slim is now on his own. All he and Snapper could scrape together was bet on "Coronado" today. Slim sees Bassitt come from the $50 window with a wad of dollars and wonders which horse he was betting on. Coronado, fractious at the post, pinions his leg on the stall gate. With the yell, "There Off!" he rushes to the post, apparently uninjured, but before the horses had gone a sixth of a mile, Coronado's legs, bucked and he crashed headlong to the ground.

CHAPTER III

A van rolled down the backstretch. A veterinarian jumped out and made a quick examination. "Don't his legs," he assured Dan. "Seems paralyzed—maybe just stunned. Let's get him back to the stable where I can take a good look at him."

As they rolled Coronado from a stall into the van Dan took off his weed coat and put it gently under the horse's head.

When the sled was rolled out of the van, horses peered curiously out of their stalls in nearby stables. Men gathered and stood watching, talking in hushed voices.

Inside the veterinarian finished his probe. Telling Old Dan wouldn't be easy.

"Broken back, Dan. Must have twisted it trying to get his leg from under the gate—it broke when he tried to get up full speed and fell."

The word spread quickly. Outraged a score of stable hands, colored and white, gathered. To these rages of the world within the race track, the name of Coronado was the emblem of equine royalty.

Inside Dan was surrounded by a few horsemen friends. His face was gray.

The strains of the bugle over at the track, calling the field to the post for the last race of the day, drifted through the stable.

"If Coronado hears that—" Dan muttered.

Coronado must have heard. For he tried to get to his feet—he was still struggling when the breath of life failed. Then he sank down and the fanned limbs that had hoped to see many triumphs stiffened in death on stable straw.

Old Dan broke away from restraining hands, threw himself on the straw and put his arms around Coronado's neck.

When Heather found him, he could only repeat to her dully: "He was the greatest of them all."

All his life Dan Mills had dreamed of owning a famous stable.

Prior to Coronado's coming, he had ground out a living with a string of nondescript but shifty stallions.

Coronado had put him on a sound financial basis for the first time in the long years of turf wanderings.

From Coronado's winnings he bought the breeding farm in Carmel Valley that had been the culminating pride of Dan's life.

Coronado had proven to Heather's mother, too, that Dan had not been wrong. She had lived to see him owner of a champion, she had kept with joy beside him at Tan-had been Dan and Coronado! Now all that remained to Heather was Coronado's empty racing saddle. And the breeding farm in the Carmel Valley, bought by Dan from his champion's winnings. And.... Artichokes.

Heather sighed, remembering Artichokes... a dull stable hand who had followed the proud eagles of Dan and Coronado through all their glorious campaigns. His real name, Jake, had long been forgotten.

Artichokes was as shiftless as he was stupid, but Coronado and he had become such fast friends, so attached through the years, that Dan dared not rid himself of the boy. Some horses grow fond of a rooster, or a dog, or some other small pet. Coronado's love had been Artichokes.

"I owe it to Dan and Coronado to care for Artichokes," Heather mused, unhappily. "Besides, he does know horses. He may be of help on the farm to me—in the future."

—In her distraught mind the girl shrank from that prospect....

DEFECTIVE EYE MOTOR HAZARD

Investigation Shows Bad Sight Big Factor In Auto Accidents

Ignorance of dangers in automobile driving because of defective vision is declared by the Yale Driver Research unit to be the greatest human hazard in motor-vehicle accidents.

Hidden inability of drivers to see things that are dangers for greater than those caused by the eye defects themselves, it is stated by the Yale Driver Research unit, is the greatest human hazard in motor-vehicle accidents.

If there is any question in your mind regarding your eyes, you should consult Dr. N. R. Peltay, optometrist-specialist with offices at Art's Jewelry store, 462 East State St.

He will make tests that will convince you of trouble that nearly always can be corrected, or, on the other hand, he can relieve your mind as to possible eye hazards if none is present.

Adjustments Necessary At Various Times for Best Results

You wouldn't call a man a surgeon whose equipment consisted only of out-dated instruments, even though records show surgeons have under emergency conditions, performed major operations with very limited equipment.

The knowing how, the experience of years, can, and often does make up for things that are lacking. But anyone knows the same man, with all the devices known to his trade or profession, is in a much better position to serve fully, give more of his skill and do any work better.

The motor of your automobile will function to greater efficiency if it is kept in perfect condition. It may run, much like yourself, by being forced from hour to hour, but again, like yourself, it will be filled with energy and radiate power at the touch of the accelerator if all adjustments are correct.

Summer weather requires adjustments different from those of winter to get 100 per cent efficiency. It does not take long for an ailing part of an automobile motor to affect another. Soon you are getting only a small portion of the value from your motor fuel.

In the case of oil and other lubricating even greater costs are created by weather conditions. Summer grade oils and greases will absolutely damage your car because they do not do the job of lubricating. All you have to do to prove it, neglect your car a few days after it gets down around the 20 degree mark.

To sum it all up it's just good judgment to take your car into the P. L. Grate garage on S. Ellsworth ave. when they have the experienced mechanics and every tool or piece most of them know to the trade, to do the work quicker and better.

OUR READERS FOR NEW JAIL

Editor The News: Tomorrow we are to vote on a tax levy to be used in building a new county jail.

We favor this levy first, because it is nothing short of inhuman to keep men confined in the present building. The basement where most of the men are kept is cared for as well as can be by those in charge but it is more or less damp, poorly ventilated, almost no sunlight gets into it and it is not suitable for human occupancy.

Some will say it is good enough for criminals. We do not think so and best of all we must remember that many who are confined in this dismal place are proven innocent of the charges placed against them. Beside this point, to be confined in an unhealthy place tends to breed greater crime rather than to create a desire in the individual to do better once he again gets his freedom.

Another point—If we vote this two mill levy NOW we will create the necessary fund to build a new jail without borrowing or issuing bonds. In this way we will save, it is estimated, $25,000 to $40,000 in interest and other charges.

We are compelled under state orders to cease using the present jail and while it will cost us something we should do the job right and provide a healthy place for the unfortunate law breakers while they are our guests.

Let's vote YES for a new jail.

GENUINE CLOTH WILL STAND UP

Inferiority Revealed Al- most Instantly In Cleaning Process

When you buy furniture or a car, you want the best you can get. Most of you appreciate quality. You don't shop around for something cheap. You go to recognized dealers whom you know, men who have standing in the community. You go to a man whom you can trust, who will make good anything that is unsatisfactory.

The Price Question. Not so many times, when it comes to clothing, price seems to govern to a greater extent. It simply must, according to L. C. Price, manager of the Paris Cleaners. Their experience is sometimes almost pathetic.

Mr. Price reports, "A recent case—a woman's coat with fur collar, from a lady who undoubtedly did not realize just what she had bought, was brought in. The fur was light gray, but under no condition could it be cleaned without removing the color of the collar. It simply was not guaranteed merchandise. It did look nice, in fact, very attractive. But its appearance and price tag deceived the present owner."

Next time this will not happen. She will ask questions and receive a guarantee of wearing and cleaning qualities and to be sure the guarantee means something, the integrity of the merchant will be given careful consideration."

If the Paris Cleaners operated on a cash basis, just didn't care what happened to their customers could be induced to cut price, to bring in their work the matter of quality merchandise would make no difference to them. Put them to guarantee their work. That is they will guarantee not to harm in any way, garments of any kind that are guaranteed by the selling merchant to be dry cleanable.

Hard to Tell Quality. No one could expect more. It's certainly perfectly fair, but with the thousands of new fabrics now on the market, many of synthetic materials, it's almost impossible for the average buyer to know merchandise that will clean from that which will not. The price, if cheap, should arouse suspicion, but good salesmanship often prevails. Mr. Price, says, "Just ask them to include on the sales slip that the garment will dry clean in safety then keep the slip. It's one sure way." Usually the employees at the Paris Cleaners can tell quality the minute they see or touch the garments. They are experienced and they know most fabrics, but now and then they, too, get fooled. It's here that the guarantee means so much to both the Paris Cleaners and the customer. If it's guaranteed, Paris will make good, but if the customer has bought merchandise that is not cleanable, they will not. Paris Cleaners ask, "would you under the same circumstances?"

FOR NEW JAIL

Editor The News: Tomorrow we are to vote on a tax levy to be used in building a new county jail.

We favor this levy first, because it is nothing short of inhuman to keep men confined in the present building. The basement where most of the men are kept is cared for as well as can be by those in charge but it is more or less damp, poorly ventilated, almost no sunlight gets into it and it is not suitable for human occupancy.

Some will say it is good enough for criminals. We do not think so and besides we must remember that many who are confined in this dismal place are proven innocent of the charges placed against them. Beside this point, to be confined in an unhealthy place tends to breed greater crime rather than to create a desire in the individual to do better once he again gets his freedom.

Another point—if we vote this two mill levy NOW we will create the necessary fund to build a new jail without borrowing or issuing bonds. In this way we will save, it is estimated, $25,000 to $40,000 in interest and other charges.

We are compelled under state orders to cease using the present jail and while it will cost us something we should do the job right and provide a healthy place for the unfortunate law breakers while they are our guests.

Let's vote YES for a new jail. Q. O.

Southern Cal. And U.C.L.A. Clash In Western Grid Classic

WEST TO PICK ITS ROSE BOWL TEAM SATURDAY

Southern Cal. Meets U. C. L. A. In Game That May Decide Issue

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The western team to play in the annual Rose Bowl classic in New Year's day probably will be decided after Southern California and U. C. L. A. meet in Los Angeles.

But if you're interested in other teams that may go bowling this winter, you can have your choice among Tennessee, Texas Aggies, Notre Dame, Cornell, Duquesne, Catholic university and perhaps a half dozen others.

The Trojans knocked Oregon State off the Pacific coast conference peak last week by 19-7 while U. C. L. A. whipped California 20-7.

Oregon State, mighty Michigan, Nebraska and Utah were unceremoniously bumped out of the championship picture last week.

U. C. L. A. will be idle next Saturday and Southern California plays Stanford, so no change in the western half of the "bowl" argument seems due this week. There's trouble in store for most of other sectional leaders, however.

On Eastern Front
EAST: Cornell managed to survive the letdown which followed the Ohio State triumph by means of blocking a couple of kicks to whip Columbia 13-7 and ranks about the best in the east. Colgate, an old rival, may put up another good argument this week.

Duquesne, which downed Marquette, 21-13, plays North Carolina, while Catholic, 13-7 winner over Tulsa, plays Little St. Anselm.

The biggest games outside of an intersectional tilt between comeback-bound Fordham, which beat Rice 13-7, are "Ivy league" affairs. Princeton, 9-6 conqueror of Harvard, takes on Dartmouth, which improved its unbeaten record by wallowing Yale 33-0. Harvard plays Army, which gave Notre Dame a good scrap before going down 14-0; Columbia meets Navy, 13-6 victim of Pennsylvania, and Penn plays Penn State. Pitt-Carnegie, Temple-Holy Cross and Yale-Brown are other standouts.

SOUTH: Tennessee, heading for its second straight unbeaten season, looked almost unbeatable in stopping Louisiana State cold, 20-0, and doesn't intend to be beaten this week by the Citadel, Kentucky, which remained unbeaten by tying Alabama, 7-7 in the Vols' most dangerous rival. The Wildcats take on Georgia Tech this week in a game which should give the winner a tie with Tennessee for the South Eastern conference lead. Tulane, with the same objective in sight, tackles Alabama while L. S. U. plays Mississippi State.

Mid-West Excitement
MID-WEST: The fans stopped holding their breath after Illinois trounced Michigan 16-7 last Saturday, figuring nothing more can happen now to surprise them. That left Ohio State, 24-0 winner over Indiana, in possession of the Big Ten lead and Notre Dame as the only undefeated and untied team of importance in the mid-west.

This week the Buckeyes play Chicago, which did comparatively well in losing to Virginia, 47-0. Michigan, having learned it's never safe to fumble when a team coached by Bob Zuppke is around, faces Minnesota, defeated 14-7 when Northwestern shock Bill De Cordova gave for a long run, Iowa, for second place with a win over western after leading Purdue 4-0, hopes to do as well against Notre Dame.

Missouri, after defeating Nebraska 27-13 on Paul Christman's remarkable passing, takes on N. Y. U. while Oklahoma, the circuit's only unbeaten survivor, takes a shot at a first-place tie. The Sooners kept pace by trimming Iowa State 38-6 and next play Kansas State, 27-6 winner over Kansas Friday.

SOUTHWEST: The two southern conference favorites, Texas Aggies and Southern Methodist, are out to settle the championship this week. The winner likely will figure very prominently in "Bowl" talk. The Aggies beat Arkansas 23-0 last Saturday while S. M. U. was taking Texas, 10-0. The Methodists' only defeat was by one point against Notre Dame. Texas and Baylor, tied for second after the Bears' 27-0 win over Texas Christian, come together in another conference tilt while Arkansas and Rice play for the consolation.

PACIFIC COAST: Barring an upset by Stanford, which lost 23-7 to Santa Clara Saturday, there's not much doing on the west coast. Oregon State and Oregon, tied for second place in the conference, meet in one game while California plays Washington, which edged out Montana 9-0. Santa Clara faces an intersectional rival, Michigan State, while Washington State plays Idaho.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN: Colorado, which lost its first three games this season, now heads the mountain states. Bow Seven after an amazing 21-14 triumph over Utah and has the week off to feel good about it.

Dover Guard Plays With Fractured Arm

DOVER, Nov. 6.—Robert Catcott, Dover High school guard, suffered an injury of the left arm in the first half of Friday night's football game with Salem High, but gritted his teeth and played until the final gun. Yesterday, an X-ray disclosed a fracture.

DETROIT LIONS DEFEAT GIANTS

Henderson Doing Well for First Year As Lion's Mentor

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—"Gloomy Gus" Henderson is wide open for the "miracle man" tag as his Detroit Lions roll over the opposition in the National Pro Football league.

Gus' Lions are a roaring success in his first year as coach, having a record of six victories in seven games for the top spot in the league's western division and the best mark of any team in the loop.

Detroit has three tough tests ahead, but none harder than the one the Lions passed Sunday. It was the Cincinnati Bengals, cost of $10,000 a few weeks ago.

The defeat left the Giants and Washington tied for first place in the eastern division. The Redskins eked out a 7 to 6 victory over Philadelphia.

The most colorful battle of the day went to the Chicago Bears, who outlasted the Green Bay Packers a full game behind the Lions and left them only a half game ahead of the third place Bears.

The fourth game of the Sunday slate went to Cleveland. The Rams defeated the hapless Chicago Cards, 14 to 0, on a muddy field.

It was the Cards' seventh defeat in eight games. Pittsburgh and Brooklyn were rained out and will play tonight at Brooklyn.

Marching steadily toward the American Professional Football league championship, the Columbus Bullies brushed off the Kenosha (Wis.) Cardinals 14 to 0 yesterday to boost their loop victories to eight straight against one loss.

The nearest rival was Chicago with four victories and two defeats. Los Angeles is in third place with two victories and one defeat.

In the only other game yesterday, the St. Louis Gunners crushed Louisville 34 to 7.

DETROIT LIONS DEFEAT GIANTS

Henderson Doing Well for First Year As Lion's Mentor

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—"Gloomy Gus" Henderson is wide open for the "miracle man" tag as his Detroit Lions, roll over the opposition in the National Pro Football league.

Gus' Lions are a roaring success in his first year as coach, having a record of six victories in seven games for the top spot in the league's western division and the best mark of any team in the loop.

Detroit has three tough tests ahead, but none harder than the one the Lions passed Sunday in turning back the New York Giants, champions and undefeated in 18 games previously.

The Lions connected for four field goals, a new record for one game, and a touchdown to account for an 18-14 margin.

Tied With Washington
Phil Martinovich, college of the Pacific recruit whose release from the Cincinnati Bengals cost the Lions $10,000 a few weeks ago, booted three of the goals and Chuck Hanneman the other three-point.

The defeat left the Giants and Washington tied for first place in the eastern division. The Redskins eked out a 7 to 6 victory over Philadelphia.

The most colorful battle of the day went to the Chicago Bears, who outlasted the Green Bay Packers a full game behind the Lions and left them only a half game ahead of the third place Bears.

The fourth game of the Sunday slate went to Cleveland. The Rams defeated the hapless Chicago Cards, 14 to 0, on a muddy field.

It was the Cards' seventh defeat in eight games. Pittsburgh and Brooklyn were rained out and will play tonight at Brooklyn.

Marching steadily toward the American Professional Football league championship, the Columbus Bullies brushed off the Kenosha (Wis.) Cardinals 14 to 0 yesterday to boost their loop victories to eight straight against one loss.

The nearest rival was Chicago with four victories and two defeats. Los Angeles is in third place with two victories and one defeat.

In the only other game yesterday, the St. Louis Gunners crushed Louisville 34 to 7.

NOSE IN COURT
SALEM, MASS.—John Thomas has sued Lawrence E. Lee for $2,500 because of a "red bulbous nose."

Thomas said he bought the nose—a putty one—from Lee so he could go to a party disguised as a "grotesque butler."

But the nose putty was poisonous. Thomas charged, and resulted in two "practically closed" eyes, a swollen real nose, pain, medical bills, lost employment and inability to fraternize with friends.

Nobody Home
COLUMBUS, O.—A skunk visited the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity house at Ohio State university.

A member telephoned a newspaper and reported the chapter's pet dog, "Skull", had killed the intruder.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Brietz To You

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—So they are going to tie a can to Bob Zuppke, hey? Every bowl-minded team in the country will have scouts at Notre Dame vs. Southern California..... Buddy Baer may meet the winner of tonight's Marty Gallagher-Abe Simon bout in Washington..... The Knoxville News-Sentinel ran a page-one picture of the Tennessee-Mercer game, showing the Tennessee football team in the country playing to row of empty seats..... How do you figure that one?

Today's Guest Star
Lawrence Skiddy, Syracuse Herald-Journal: "Hungry for victory, Syracuse alumni want a meal..... Ossie Solem, their toast of the last two years, finds his standard altered now by a single letter..... Instead of a toast, he is a roast."

Young Alfred G. Vanderbilt is going to take Impound (who hasn't started since the Preknex) off the farm and race him in Florida this winter..... Air-minded Texans are thinking of investigating the Texas Aggies who actually are winning bad games on the ground..... Mike Jacobs thought so well of Billy Marquart, the Canadian lightweight, in his victory over Billy Beaulieu that he may get a shot at the lightweight title in February.

"And Still Champ—"
Without a doubt, Mr. B. S. J., one of our Sioux Falls, S. D., clients, is the country's champion neck-sticker-outer..... He writes: Last week I picked some football winners that amazed me..... So this week I am picking Louisiana State over Tennessee and Army over Notre Dame."

Personals: Bob Pastor will see this week's Michigan-Minnesota game as the guest of Coach Fritz Crisler. Bob wants to see if Tom Harmon can run as fast as he can..... Wallace Butts is asking Georgetown for a three-year contract and everybody down there hopes he gets it..... In his broadcast of the Canzoneri-Davis fight, the remarkable Sam Taub yelled: "Remember Canzoneri has the experience even if he is a veteran."

Again In Lead
NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Don Lieberum, captain and quarterback of the undefeated Manchester (Ind.) Teachers regained the individual scoring leadership of the nation over the weekend.

Playing only 15 minutes of Saturday's game against Bluffton (O.) college, he tallied four touchdowns in a spectacular exhibition.

Others among the leaders made gains, too, Michigan's Tommy Harmon collecting one touchdown out of the shambles at Illinois to bring his total to 79 and Bill Sheridan of Little Claron (Pa.) Teachers scoring all his team's 12 points for a total.

One Truck STANDS OUT IN 1940

Look over the 1940 trucks. Compare them, chassis for chassis... feature for feature... price for price. You will find one that is an outstanding truck for the money. It's the Ford V-8!

The Ford Truck is priced with the lowest, but ranks with the best in quality. Many Ford features are found only in the most expensive trucks. They're put in the Ford Truck to make it more durable, more dependable.

The 1940 Ford Truck line is the broadest in Ford history. There are six wheelbases, 42 body and chassis types, and three V-type eight-cylinder engines—95, 85 and 60 hp. The Ford Truck line now answers well over 95 per cent of all hauling and delivery needs.

And just as the Ford Truck excels in quality, it offers an economy proved by billions of miles of payload performance. It is built to do more work, in less time, at lower cost.

See these new Ford Trucks at your Ford dealer's and arrange for an actual "on-the-job" test. Prove to yourself — on your own job — the difference Ford quality and Ford economy make before you spend another truck dollar.

1940 FORD TRUCK FEATURES

New modern styling • New chassis design • Increased accessibility • Fan on crankshaft • Larger, heavier front axle • Improved cab construction • Cove mounted windshield wipers • Mattress-type seat cushion springs • Shift-guide speedometer • Battery Condition Indicator • New Sealed-Beam Headlamps • Bigger batteries, larger generators with automatic voltage regulation • Dual wheel to accommodate tires up to 8.25 optional at extra cost

O.S.U. Expected To Have Little Trouble With Chicago

BY FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Nov. 6.—Ohio State's "soft touch" game with Chicago's hapless Maroons—you can't call it a contest—headlines next weekend's 23-event football program involving Buckeye college squads.

The chances are that Coach Francis Schmidt's first-stringers will see little action against the Chicagoans.

The Bucks, riding in the conference driver's seat after Saturday's 24-0 conquest of Indiana, coupled with Iowa's 4-0 win over Purdue and Illinois' breath-taking 16-7 victory over Michigan's powerhouse, are expected to have exactly no trouble with Chicago.

Muskie Wear Crown
Although seven of Saturday's games are in the Ohio conference, they have no bearing on the championship, which Muskingum tucked away Saturday as it beat Ohio Northern's Polar Bears 19 to 0. The Muskie meet Heidelberg Saturday, but a Student Prince upset victory could not shake Muskingum out of the top spot.

DeSales of Toledo, the state's freshman football member and holder of the only clean record in Ohio, goes to Grand Rapids, Mich., Friday for its weekly chore and should easily keep its record unblemished.

Oberlin and John Carroll fell for the first Saturday, leaving DeSales at the peak all alone. Oberlin fell 19-0 before a comeback Wooster Scot team, while Toledo swept John Carroll aside 20 to 0.

Here's the weekend slate:
FRIDAY: DeSales at Grand Rapids, Mich.; Youngstown at Tennessee Tech.

SATURDAY: Ohio State at Chicago, Heidelberg at Muskingum, Wilberburg at Marietta, Denison at Oberlin, Bowling Green at Findlay, Case at Wooster, Ohio Northern at Mount Union, Capital at Otterbein, Alfred Holbrook at Morehead (Ky.), Boston University at Cincinnati, Baldwin Wallace at Akron, Defiance at St. Mary's (Mich.), Miami at Ohio University, Ohio Wesleyan at Centre, Clarion at Hiram, Assumption at Bluffton, Kentucky State at Wilberforce, Kent State at Western Reserve, Morris Harvey

West End Gridders Defeat Easterners
The West End footballers invaded the East End yesterday to walk off with victory by the score of 46 to 0. It was a hard fought game all the way, but the West Enders' hard charging line and flashy backs were too much for the Easterners.

The star of the game was Tubby Shasten. His long kicks and running kept the Westerners in scoring position all the way. The West End Cowboys will play the Easterners next Sunday at the latter's field.

RED STUFF, Cal.—Owners of the Cone-Stover-McKenzie and the Cone and Ward ranches are entertaining — and feeding—16,000 uninvited deer this fall. The deer just "moved in" from exhausted ranges and began grazing.

GIVE THE WORKING MAN A CHANCE

Be a Justice of the Peace who is free from political entanglements and free from personal favoritism, and there is a position to make fair and just decisions in all cases, including cases where the workingman's earnings and personal property are endangered.

Recall the one who, in the performance of his duties, applies the Golden Rule by doing unto others as he would have others do unto him.

Consider that this candidate is the only candidate for this office who has a dependent family (a wife and three children), and really needs the employment this office affords.

Even though you might desire to vote for one or two others, who might be personal friends of yours, may I still urge you to vote for me, as there are three to elect.

During my term of office I have spent many of my duties, applying the Golden Rule by doing unto others as he would have others do unto him.

My candidate is opposed to Politics without principle—Pleasure without conscience—Knowledge without character—Business without morality, and Worship without sacrifice.

I shall greatly appreciate your vote and influence, and if elected will repay you with a continuation of honest and faithful performance of the duties of the office of Justice of the Peace.

I thank you.

BURSON RAYMOND JACOB

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, who passed away one year ago today, Nov. 6, 1938 (death being due to injuries in a serious accident).

Surrounded by friends we are lonely; In the midst of our joys we are blue; With a smile on our faces we've a heartache.

Longing, dear one, for you. We sometimes sit and talk of you. And speak of how you died; To think you could not say goodbye before you closed your eyes.

A bitter grief and a shock severe. To part with the one we loved so dear; For all of us you did your best; May God grant you eternal rest.

Special Notices

GIVE THE WORKING MAN A CHANCE
 Remain a Justice of the Peace who is free from political entanglements and personal favoritism, and there is a position to make fair and equitable decisions in all cases, including those where the workingman's earnings and personal property are endangered.

Consider that this candidate is the only candidate for this office who has a dependent family (a wife and three children), and really needs the employment this office affords.

Even though you might desire to vote for one or two others, who might be personal friends of yours, you may still vote for me, as there are three to elect.

During my term of office I have helped many to retain their jobs. I am now asking you, dear voter, to help me retain my job.

Your candidate is opposed to Politics without principle—Pleasure without conscience—Knowledge without character—Business without morality, and Worship without sacrifice.

I shall greatly appreciate your vote and influence, and if elected will repay you with a continuation of the duties of the office of Justice of the Peace.

I thank you.

In Memoriam

BURSON, RAYMOND JACOB
 In loving memory of our dear son and brother, who passed away one year ago today, Nov. 6, 1938 (death being due to injuries in a serious accident).

Surrounded by friends we are lonesome;
 In the midst of our joys we are blue;
 With a smile on our faces we're a heartache,
 Longing, dear one, for you.

We sometimes sit and talk of you
 And speak of how you died;
 To think you could not say goodbye
 Before you closed your eyes.
 A bitter grief and a shock we loved
 To part with the one we loved so dear.

For all of us you did your best;
 May God grant you eternal rest.
 MR. AND MRS. W. E. BURSON
 AND FAMILY.

A. T. Hutson respectfully solicits the support of the voters of Salem and Perry Township at the Election on Tuesday, Nov. 7th, for reelection as Justice of the Peace. In his term of office of almost four years, but two cases of appeal from his decisions to a higher court have been taken. His attitude in office toward all mankind has been "Look Up, Lift Up", and not push farther down into trouble and despondency. These are perilous times but the initiative and faith of the people in this God-favored land will eventually solve our problems as in sundry previous periods of our history.

Do not fail to exercise your prerogative of American citizenship and be glad of the opportunity to vote. "Justice tempered with mercy" and enforced with a few grains of common sense, is the substance of all law, and has its origin in Holy Writ.
